

CAE – Phrases & Idioms

Sign up for our free newsletter to get special deals and hear about all our newest books and free book promotions before anyone else. You can get on the list here:

<http://www.aprendeinglesenleganes.com/lists.php>

FIND YOUR...

Find your feet

to start to feel confident and able to deal with a new situation.

- It took me a while to find my feet in my new job.
- At the beginning, Mike had trouble to adapt to the new school, but has since found his feet. He's made many new friends and has even joined the school football team.

Find/get your bearings

to find out where you are and where other things are

- We got lost in the city centre, but after a while we managed to find our bearings and headed back to our hotel.
- It is hard to get your bearings in unfamiliar surroundings.

Find your voice/tongue

to be able to speak or express your opinion.

- When they offered a reward, some of the witnesses found their voices.
- Peter could not find his tongue when he was asked to talk in the meeting.

Find your touch

to start to do something very well

- It took Ronaldo a while to find his touch, but once he did there was no stopping him.
- Wayne Rooney has to find his touch this season to continue to give Manchester United fans the joy they deserve.

Find your way

To manage to get to a place

- She got lost, but eventually managed to find her way home.
- Will you be able to find your way back to your hotel?

Find yourself doing something to realize that you are in a place or doing something without really intending or planning to

- I have no idea how it happened, but later that evening I found myself in a nightclub surrounded by celebrities.
- At first, I thought I wouldn't like the book. However, I later found myself reading it for hours and not knowing where the time had gone.