

as...as

We use as + adjective/adverb + as to make comparisons when the things we are comparing are equal in some way:

- The world's biggest bull is as big as a small elephant.
- The weather this summer is as bad as last year. It hasn't stopped raining for weeks.
- You have to unwrap it as carefully as you can. It's quite fragile.

Not as ... as

We use “not as ... as” to make comparisons between things which aren't equal:

- This bag is not as heavy as I thought it would be.
- Rory hasn't grown as tall as Tommy yet.

not so...as

(formal) We used in comparisons to say that something or someone has less of a particular quality than another person or thing

- The cycling was good but not so hard as the cross country skiing we did.
- The bed was not so comfortable as his own.
- The idea is not so silly as it sounds.

Common mistake :

In comparisons without ‘not’, we use “as ... as”:

- Your writing is as bad as mine.

✗ Don't say: Your writing is so bad as mine.

“Not so ... as” is less common than “Not as ... as”.
