RESULT IN FROM

RESULT IN SOMETHING	RESULT FROM SOMETHING
phrasal verb	phrasal verb
to cause something , or to produce something	to be caused directly by something that has happened previously
• The crash resulted in the deaths of 14 passengers.	• We are still dealing with problems resulting from errors made in the past.
• The campaign resulted in significant sales increases.	• The arrests resulted from an anonymous telephone call.
• A sudden change in temperature will inevitably result in rain.	• His difficulty in walking results from a childhood illness.
result in someone/something doing something	result from someone/something doing something
• These policies resulted in many elderly people suffering hardship.	• He claimed damages for the losses that resulted from the government cancelling the project.

Typical C1 /C2 key word transformation exercise

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given. You must use between three and six words, including the word given.

The factory closed , leaving many people out of work.
resulted
The ...... closure of the factory resulted in .... many job losses.

The finance director disagreed with the company's change of policy, so she resigned.
resulted
The finance director's .... resignation resulted from her disagreement .... with the company's change of policy.