

Semblance

appearance

A/ SOME semblance of something

A situation, condition, etc. that is close to or similar to a particular one, usually a good one

- The city has now returned to some semblance of normality after last night's celebrations.
- He was executed without even the semblance of a fair trial.
- She struggled to bring a semblance of order to the meeting.
- The ceasefire brought about a semblance of order.
- I drew up a list of towns and villages and put them in some semblance of order.
- I wish the new trainee would show at least some semblance of competence.

Resemblance

likeness

The fact that two people or things look like each other or are similar in some other way:

Resemblance between

- There was a clear family resemblance between all the brothers.
- The resemblance between Mary and her sister was remarkable.

Bear a (close/striking/uncanny, etc.) resemblance to somebody/something : To look like Sb /Sth

- Mary bears a striking resemblance to her sister.
- A TikTok user is going viral due to her uncanny resemblance to Taylor Swift.

Bear no resemblance to something

To be completely different from something/someone

- These prices bear no resemblance to the ones I saw printed in the newspaper.
- The boy bears no resemblance to his father.