

SOMEBODY WITH SOMETHING VERBS

| VERB | SOMEBODY | WITH | SOMETHING |
|----------|----------------------------------|---------------------|---|
| ACQUAINT | Take time to acquaint yourself | with | the rules |
| ASSIST | I will assist you | with | the drafting of the document |
| CHARGE | She is been charged | with | murder |
| CHARM | He charmed us | with | his delightful conversation |
| CONFRONT | I confronted her | with | the problem |
| CREDIT | Please, credit me | with | some intelligence |
| FAVOUR | He favoured us | with | an interview |
| FEED | He's been feeding the police | with | information about terrorist activities |
| HELP | The hotel concierge helped us | with | the luggage |
| HIT | The government hit us | with | a big fine |
| HONOUR | We were honoured | with | the presence of the president |
| IDENTIFY | He is identified | with | the right wing |
| IMBUE | German children were imbued | with | the cult of Adolf Hitler |
| INFECT | Her laughter infected everyone | with | good spirits |
| INFUSE | He infused us | with | optimism |
| ISSUE | After the briefing I was issued | with | two weapons |
| LAND | I was landed | with | the donkey work |
| LEAVE | I was left | with the impression | that she was lying |
| PLY | They kept plying us | with | wine |
| PRESENT | The winners were presented | with | medals |
| PROVIDE | The school provided students | with | pens |
| REPROACH | She was reproached | with | something out of the past |
| REWARD | He rewarded her | with | a smile |
| SADDLE | They saddled me | with | cleaning up after the party |
| SERVE | The waiter served them both | with | salmon poached in white wine |
| SHOWER | His boss showered him | with | praise |
| STICK | They always stick me | with | the bill |
| SUPPLY | The students were supplied | with | a list of books that they were expected to read |
| TAUNT | He taunted her | with | her clumsiness |
| TEMPT | They are just trying to tempt me | with | a promotion |
| THREATEN | He has threatened | with | legal action |
| TRUST | They trusted their son | with their | family car |

More examples :

Leave someone with something

- I was left with the impression that she wasn't being quite honest.
- I was left with the huge burden of trying to raise the capital to complete the show

Threat someone with something

- One man has been threatened with legal action.
- A man is assisting the police with their inquiries.

Identify someone with something to think of (someone) as being very closely associated with (something) — often used as (be) identified with

- She has always been identified with the civil rights movement.
- These groups are identified with conservation.

Infect someone with something

- Please, don't infect me with your cold germs.
- Her explosive laughter infected everyone with good spirits

Credit someone with something to say or believe that someone has a particular quality.

- I had credited them with more integrity than they showed.

to say or believe that someone is responsible for a particular achievement.

- She is credited with making the business a success.

Imbue someone with something to make someone or something have a quality, idea, or emotion very strongly:

- I tried to imbue my children with a strong sense of justice.

Tempt someone with something

- Can I tempt you with a bit of chocolate cake?
- I was tempted with a free book if I sent in my name, but I decided against it.

Trust (someone) with (something) :

to allow (someone) to have or use (something valuable)

- They trusted their son with the family car.
- I trusted the reporter with my story.

Present somebody with something to give something to someone formally or officially

- He was presented with a bottle of champagne.
- She was presented with an award.

cause something to happen [transitive] to cause something to happen or exist:

- I knew I had presented her with an impossible task.

Shower somebody with something to give someone a lot of things

- She showered him with kisses.
- Tom showered Amy with presents.

Reproach somebody with something (formal) to criticize someone and feel disappointed with them for something they have done

- He reproached her with having told him a lie.

Acquaint somebody with something (formal) to give someone information about something:

- You need to acquaint the police with the facts.

Land / Saddle / Stick someone with something to give someone an unpleasant job that no one else wants to do

- John was landed with the job of sorting Susan's files when she left.
- John was saddled with the job of sorting Susan's files when she left.
- John was/got stuck with the job of sorting Susan's files when she left.