FEEL LIKE (doing) something to have a wish for something , or to want to do something, at a particular moment:

- I feel like (going for) a swim.
- I feel like (having) a nice cool glass of lemonade.
- I feel like (having) a drink.
- I feel like something to eat.
- We all felt like celebrating.
- I don't feel like going to the cinema.
- "Are you coming to aerobics?"
"No, I don't feel like it today."
- We'll go for a walk if you feel like it.

to want to do something that you do not do:

- He was so rude, I felt like leaving immediately.
- She felt like screaming at him, but she was determined not to lose her self-control.

FEEL UP TO (doing) something to feel that you are strong or healthy enough to do something ; to have the energy to do something:

- I don't feel up to going out tonight.
- I don't feel up to eating anything.
- Do we have to go to the party?
I really don't feel up to it.
- I'm so tired that I don't even feel up to going to the party.
- Can we go tomorrow?
I don't really feel up to it today.
- I'd love to see you if you feel up to a coffee.

FEEL UP TO THE MARK

not be/feel up to the mark (British English, old-fashioned)

not to feel as well or lively as usual

- I'm not feeling up to the mark at the moment

FEEL LIKE SOMETHING

to seem to be something, or (esp. of weather) to seem likely to do something:

- I felt like a fool when I couldn't remember her name.
- She said she didn't feel like herself today.
- It feels like rain.
